

Privacy Policy

This notice discloses the privacy practices for online payments to St. Mark Lutheran Church and School. We are the sole owners of the electronic data collected on this site. We access only that information which you voluntarily provide us electronically or by other means. We will not sell or rent this information to anyone and we will not share this information with anyone outside of our organization, except as necessary to fulfill your request or as required by law.

Your Access to and Control Over Information

At any time you may contact us to:

- See what data we have about you, if any
- Change/correct any data we have about you
- Have us delete any payment authorization we have from you, along with all data related to the authorization
- Express any concern you have about our use of your data.

Security

We take precautions to protect your information. When you submit sensitive information via the website, your information is protected both online and offline.

Sensitive information (such as credit card data) is encrypted and transmitted to us in a secure way. You can verify this by looking for a closed lock icon at the bottom of your web browser, or looking for “https” at the beginning of the address of the web page.

While encryption is used to protect the online transmission of sensitive data, we also protect your information offline. Only employees who need the information to perform a specific job are granted access to personally identifiable information. The locations where we store personally identifiable information are kept in a secure environment.
